

Thank you for starting the Journey to Freedom with Restore Small Groups!

Our vision is to follow God's call to build healing communities around the world. Restore Small Groups have been a place of authentic life change for thousands seeking hope in the midst of struggle. We are committed to equipping every person and organization that is called to offer this program.

The following Partnership Agreement is a mutual commitment by Restore Small Groups and your organization, for the sake of ensuring quality and sustaining a collaborative relationship as your small group program grows. Together we can build a network of hope and healing to your community and the world!

RESTORE SMALL GROUPS AGREES TO:

- Provide licensing permissions for use of all Restore Small Groups intellectual property as it pertains to duplicating for group needs, and equipping facilitators.
- Provide access to in-person and online trainings that will help your organization keep quality high, and consistent growth among your volunteer base.
- Provide affordable training opportunities to further educate facilitators.
- Deliver any updated digital files free-of-charge as they become available
- Access to promotional opportunity with author, Scott Real to aid your first group launch, either in person if geographically possible or remotely using video or online capabilities.

PARTNER AGREES TO:

- Have all facilitators trained by Restore to ensure quality.
- Facilitate small groups in accordance with RSG best practices stated in Facilitator handbook
- To purchase all books and facilitator guides from RSG directly from Restore
- Sustain its efforts to pay a licensing fee based on their size, giving partners access to marketing and group materials that can be duplicated at no cost.

We understand that this partnership is subject to the terms as listed above. If these terms are not met, we understand that the partnership can be ended at any time by either party.
